girl on the moon

(Lyrics: Julia Derleder, Music: Steffi List)

Every night I'm sitting here and switch on all the stars Wishing that you will be near to dance with you on mars
The universe I'll show to you, we would go for a walk On the way when we come through, to Venus we could talk

I'm the girl on the moon, watching your sleep, crossing your dreams
I'm the girl on the moon.

And then a shooting star would fly with us straight to the milky way because the milky way's near by for a glass of milk we'd stay On satellites, oh we'd swing, baby it'll be a bliss a love song just for you I'd sing which ended with a kiss no more apologies

(Lyrics: Julia Derleder, Music: Steffi List)

So long I ran away from me and I ignored my own screaming because I don't wanted to see the difference in my dreaming I wasn't searching for the key don't wanna understand the meaning damped everything that feeling free but a little light stayed gleaming

Hey, hey, hey - no more apologies Hey, hey, hey - and no more ugly lies I, I, I - feel like a hologram
I, I, I - I am what I am

The little light became a conflagration no chance to kill no chance to raze tell me what's my designation a broken mirror, a foreign face who is bringing me salvation my mind is clearing up the haze Dispelled is my frustration
(the) darkness disappeared - nights into days loneliness

(Lyrics: Julia Derleder, Music: Steffi List)

All my thoughts are mad'nin' me - so I got down on my knees Praying to the sky above - asking for love And the stars made no reply - I asked the moonlight why why my heart swims in a cove - can't accept some love

I'm lost and I'm cold - too young and too old I'm tired and I'm sad - loneliness is driving me mad
Also the moon has no idea - keeps secret 'bout all my fear
I look to the dark above - wondering what is love I'm still alone here outside - have my own struggle to fight now I drown in the cove - never knew 'bout love not special

(Lyrics: Julia Derleder, Music: Steffi List)

How can you love me forever how can we stay together how can't there be another how can you ignore the other Why do you stay when I'm sad why do you love me when I'm mad why do you listen to my scream why do you realize my dream

I'm not special, baby can't you see I will never be special but you have chosen me

How can you hold me tight how can you sleep at night how can you give me a hug how can you promise me luck Why do you smile when I'm there why do you always care why don't you never lie why do you stop my cry

new tattoo

(Music & Lyrics: Steffi List)

How you see I got a new tattoo what it means, it's a memory of you

You spent all your time and taught me precious things I finally wish you wide open wings

I wanna thank you had known you

You got a place in my heart you got a place in my mind you got a place in my soul you left a hole You live on

How you see I got a new tattoo
it's a sign for the earth and you Nothing's what I've missed you gave me love and a home I finally wish you'll never be alone I wanna thank you - feel hug you let me be your lover

(Music & Lyrics: Steffi List)

Since I met you everything's new what I think and see, what I do The reason why I don't want to deny something drives me crazy, you supply

Tell me the price to realize which rule breaks through I tell you what to do

Let me be your lover only for a night I swear I try to make everything all right let me own your body for a night let me be yours forever - or a night

See your face, your soul, your eyes leave me feeling numb and hypnotised you're walking through my dreams all night daytime writes my stories, it's all right

Do you feel my fire burns inside I go insane it covered my sight will you satisfied my desire And kill my glowin' fire

it begins to rain

(Lyrics: Julia Derleder, Music: Steffi List)

It's already dark outside Only the stars are giving light Walking through the streets - I can't feel my needs

My heart is empty also my head
My senses are off my feelings are dead Today is like any day
But today it blew my mind away

It begins to rain and it's awfully cold Give myself a hug there's no one to hold Now heaven is crying so I can cry, too I try to forget all about, all about you

Today I felt a special pain Hurt in my heart goes straight to my brain You're near and far apart - I swam it broke my heart

Although I knew you're full of lies I turned around and looked in your eyes
I run and run and scream Can't find any sleep frightened of dream

Thinkin' 'bout you - explodes my hate Hate myself, cause I know it's too late Such a waste givin' my heart to you It's on me to stand it goin' through

Now I am sure, wherever you are Hear me "I'll start winning this war"
I throw away the pain I won't stand it - I dance in the rain escape from reality

(Lyrics: Julia Derleder, Music: Steffi List)

Sometimes I can't sustain the world people are reviled, feelings are hurled the namelessness grows strong and big all the prejudices making me sick Anything other than normal is bad equality's important I'm going mad No variances it has always been so the acceptability is getting low

When I can't stand it anymore I close my eyes walk through the door the door between my mind and me
escape from reality

Tolerance seems to be a foreign word and mutually we dip in our own dirt rash thoughts suffice as a proof the settings are unable to move The unique society governs your life man and woman, husband and wife the colours of the world will fade through a swamp of lies we wade mania (vengeance fire burns)

(Lyrics: Julia Derleder, Music: Steffi List)

They come at dead of night without early warning they fight my inmost soul they seek without regarding I'm weak Feel frightened of closing my eyes, come creeping in my different disguise big crows try to steal my soul, hunt me relentlessly into black hole

Vengeance fire burns always when the evening turns I looked into the devil's mug, strangled me nearly with a hug

The ghosts pursue me in my dreams, reality is no more what it seems The day is a precursor of scare, at night they are still waiting there They always force me to my knees, left only a mortal frame of me they cause me to hate myself and block the stony way to health

Himmelstür

(Music & Lyrics: Steffi List)

Liebe kann schmerzvoll sein und tut so gut, ein auf und ab der Gefühle, ein Feuer ohne Glut.
Freunde zu finden ist oft gar nicht so leicht, die Masken abzulegen macht glücklich, stark und reich.

Will alles das erleben, darum bin ich hier, alles ausprobieren auch wenn ich mal verliere.

Stehst du irgendwann vor der Himmelstür und da fragt man dich: „hast du gelebt“.
So wie du es wolltest ohne wenn und aber hast vollendet was dir vorgeschwebt, dann sollte es für dich nur eine Antwort geben.
Es war ne geile Zeit vielen Dank dafür, es macht mir gar nichts aus, dass ich hier heute steh.
Es geht immer weiter, ein neuer Weg, wohin er führt werd ich schon seh.

Über Grenzen und durch Mauern gehen, wie reizvoll das doch ist.
Den Augenblick genießen, alles um sich rum vergisst.
Sorge und Verantwortung zu tragen ist oft schwer, ob Family, Job, Erfolg und Geld erfordert meistens mehr.

Prinz und Prinzessin

(Lyrics: Steffi List, Music: Sébastien Angrand & Steffi List)

Es war einmal ein Prinz und seine Prinzessin endlich auf ewig vereint macht das Leben Sinn Durch Dornenwände – in rettende Hände Verzaubert von dir – erwacht Liebe in mir

Mit dir kann ich fliegen – fest verwurzelt, verankert
selbst wenn der Wind sich dreht

Berg auf, Berg ab zwischen Drachen und Feen, im verwunschenen Spiegel, die Zukunft sehn?
Durch Zauberwälder und steinige Felder gebettet auf Elfenstaub, Schlösser aus Sand gebaut

Mit dir kann ich fliegen – fest verwurzelt, verankert
selbst wenn der Wind sich dreht

Mit dir der Welt entfliehen wenn der Wind unsre innigsten Träume und Spuren verweht

Lass uns fliegen ich halt's nicht aus ohne dich zu sein Lass uns lieben immer mehr, immer mehr, immer mehr ins Herz hinein
